Dear Mrs Hartley

I am pleased to hear that you enjoyed your visit to our stand at the Continental Food Exhibition whilst we were on tour earlier this year.

You say in your letter that you would like to have information about some of our more unusual blends.

italics

The following are examples of exotic flavoured mustards. These enhanced mustards can give a whole new dimension to sauces, dips and dressings -

Herbs

Spices

Fruit

Basil

Chillies

Lemon

Chives

Peppercorns

Lime

Mint

Ginger

Orange

A tangy berry mustard makes a zippy addition to barbecued meats while lemon-herb mustard, added to a little mayonnaise, makes a tasty dressing for fish dishes.

We do have a mail order service and I am enclosing with this letter a copy of our latest catalogue of products for sale. Your name and address will be placed on our annual mailing list to receive details of new products.

Yours sincerely

Edouard Desgain
